

Two Facts about the trend in disability-free life expectancy in the UK

Chris White (Office of National Statistics)

Babies born in 2009-11 are expected to live more years in 'Good' health, than those born a decade ago

A 65 year-old in 2009-11 will live longer free from disability compared to the previous decade, in the UK

